

USA WORKING EQUITATION
Code of Ethics - Professional Development
Professional Instructor

In providing a service to the working equitation community, I recognize the need to do so in a professional manner, interacting with the public and colleagues with the highest degree of integrity. I will adhere to the following creed:

- a. I will execute my duties without bias or prejudice.
- b. I will ensure that every horse present at an event where I am instructing shall, at all times, be treated humanely, maintaining the welfare of the horse as paramount.
- c. I will adhere to all relevant policies/procedures of USA Working Equitation (USAWE) while upholding the U.S. Rules for Working Equitation.
- d. I will conduct business in a manner that will enhance the image of USAWE and the sport of working equitation.
- e. I will avoid conflicts of interest, either real or perceived, whenever possible, and disclose conflicts of interest wherever they exist and cannot be avoided.
- f. I will uphold the highest standard of professional behavior, recognizing that even the appearance of misconduct or impropriety can be very damaging to the reputation of USAWE as well as to my own reputation.
- g. I understand the only title I may use is: "USAWE Professional Instructor".

I understand and agree that USAWE has the right to investigate complaint(s) regarding alleged conduct. I will participate in the due process proceedings of the Ethics Committee. I have a right to review all information, documents, photographs, or other evidence used to evaluate my performance in my official duty. I will abide by the decision of the Ethics Committee once all avenues of due process have been exhausted.

I understand that in order to maintain recognition as a USAWE Professional Instructor, I must maintain membership with USAWE and annually provide proof of membership, insurance, and continuing education as outlined in the Professional Development Program.

I will abide by the Social Media Policy.

By signing this document, I agree to be bound by this Code of Ethics and the Professional Development Program. I understand that failure to do so could result in suspension and/or loss of recognition.
